

Children's Programming

PADA's Child Victim Advocate works individually and in groups with children and teens who have witnessed domestic and/or sexual violence in the home. In addition to directly working with children, the advocate will provide support and information to protective parent(s) regarding their concerns about the trauma and effects of their children witnessing abuse.

(920) 674-6768